Cutting and Folding

After printing, on each side cut off all remaining white paper. To fold, start with the front cover, folding on the green line. Next fold the spine where the dark green meets the front cover. Then fold the spine where it meets the back cover. Fit the dust jacket on the book. Rotate the book so the spine is away from you. Lift up all the pages, except for the back cover of the book and, lastly, fold over the back cover flap as accurate as possible. Now that the folds are roughed in, take off the dust jacket and sharply crease on the folds. As an option, you can tape the dust jacket flaps to the front to secure it. Enjoy!

Is finding an unexpected gem a lucky strike?

After getting a late jumpstart in life, Luna Lanza isn't afraid to get what she wants, including the place of her dreams. When she loses out on the perfect duplex and settles for a standard apartment, she's disappointed. But Luna remains determined to make it work, even if it sparks a contentious relationship with her new landlord – the same guy she accidentally kissed in an impromptu photo shoot.

Still grieving the sudden death of his brother, reformed bad boy Sam Sunderland feels trapped managing his father's rundown apartment building. When the spunky beauty, who unexpectedly kissed him, moves in full of ideas, he can't help being intrigued– that is until she starts changing things behind his back, endangering his position and the relationship with his father.

Sam and Luna wrangle over rules and misunderstandings while fighting against the undeniable attraction between them. It's a hard lesson to learn that 'perfect' can take many different forms. But will the renovations they do together lay a foundation to something more?
